

Rohas Nagpal

Rohas Nagpal is the founder President of the Asian School of Cyber Laws and a senior partner with Tech Juris Law Consultants.

He advises corporates, law firms, Governments and law enforcement agencies on issues relating to technology law, cyber crime investigation, information warfare and cyber terrorism. He has assisted the Government of India in drafting rules and regulations under the Information Technology Act, 2000.

Rohas Nagpal conducts training programs in technology law and cyber crime investigation and has authored several books, papers and articles on these topics. He is the founder of CyberAttack, an open community working for cyber security. He also maintains www.bugs.ms, a specialized search engine that tracks bugs and vulnerabilities in Microsoft® products.

Some of the books authored by Rohas Nagpal

"Cyber Crime & Corporate Liability" – first published by Wolters Kluwer in 2008. This book addresses issues relating to Indian cyber law, cyber crimes, cyber crime investigation and cyber crime law.

"Cyber Crime – Prosecution & Defence" – first published by Asian School of Cyber Laws in 2003 with revised editions published in 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008). This book covers the fundamentals of Indian cyber law, Intellectual Property issues in cyber space and legal and technological issues pertaining to cyber crime & digital evidence.

"Cyber Crime Investigation Manual" - first published by ASCL Academy in 2002 with revised editions published in 2004, 2006 and 2008). This multi-volume book addresses issues relating to the basics of the Internet, Investigating Emails, Investigating Server Logs, Investigating Intellectual Property Crimes, Investigating Financial Crimes, Investigating Digital Signature Crimes and Cyber Crime & the Law. This book has been referred to as a "bible for cyber crime investigators" by Times of India – the world's largest selling English newspaper.

"Financial Law in India" - first published by ASCL Law School in 2006 with a revised edition published in 2008). This book addresses issues relating to basic financial concepts, securities & investment law in India and legal issues pertaining to Initial Public Offerings.

Some of the Papers authored by Rohas Nagpal

"Internet Time Theft & the Indian Law" - white paper prepared for the Corps of Detectives, Karnataka Police, September 2001.

"Legislative Approach to Digital Signatures" - paper presented at the First World Congress on Computer Law organized at Ecuador, October, 2001.

"Legislative Approach to Digital Signatures" - paper presented at the International Law Seminar organized by ISIL at New Delhi, India in October, 2001.

"Indian Legal position on Cyber Terrorism, Encryption and preventive measures" on behalf of the Karnataka Police for Otto Schily, Interior Minister, Federal Republic of Germany (30th October, 2001).

"Defining Cyber Terrorism" - paper submitted at the National Seminar on Human Rights and Terrorism on 9 and 10 March 2002 at Nagpur, India.

"The mathematics of terror" - paper submitted at the National Seminar on Human Rights and Terrorism on 9 and 10 March, 2002 at Nagpur, India.

"Cyber Terrorism in the context of Globalisation" – Paper presented at the UGC sponsored National Seminar on “Globalization and Human Rights” held on 7th - 8th September, 2002 at Mumbai, India.

"Cyber Terrorism – A Global Perspective" – Paper presented at the Second World Congress on Informatics and Law held at Madrid, Spain from 23rd - 27th September, 2002.

Internet Draft authored by Rohas Nagpal

"Biometric based Digital Signature scheme" – which proposes a method of using biometrics to generate keys for use in digital signature creation and verification.

Contact Information

Rohas Nagpal can be contacted on rn@asianlaws.org

His personal website is www.rohasnagpal.com